ACE - a leadership program for women change-makers from non-profits, academia, and public service

ARE YOU READY FOR HIGH IMPACT?

No matter how experienced you are, handling leadership challenges, workplace politics, and gender bias is a constant challenge.

Your tools and strategies are not cutting it. You feel like you're doing it alone. There is nobody to turn to for guidance or help.

There is too much going on. You have no space or energy to take care of yourself. You worry: am I going to burn out?

You're over those entry-level programs that repeat the basics. You want something highly effective.

ARE YOU READY TO ACE IT?

- ✓ Get the competencies to navigate complex landscapes, diverse perspectives and interests with healthy confidence, grace and mastery.
- ✓ Connect with other women leaders and benefit from peer support.
- ✓ Enjoy high impact without compromising your wellbeing, thriving as a leader.
