

IFIS-Online-Colloquium

The Institute for Integral Studies invites you to the IFIS Online Colloquium n° 19:

Time:	Wednesday, December 12th, 2018 , at 20.00-22.00 h , Zoom meeting.
Presenter:	Anastasia Nekrasova , Intelligent Mindsets, Norden Association in Sweden
Topic:	Laboratories for a new Europe: Experimental governance in EU Macro-Regional strategies

Details

In this increasingly complex world, things seem to disintegrate sooner than one can give credit to their existence. Against this, it becomes increasingly obvious that 'old' constructions, the European Union included, struggle to keep together. Countries turn back to nationalism, cooperation systems stagnate, and individuals increasingly turn their backs to problems outside their backyard. Are we nearing the dusk of the EU as we know it? However, it is exactly now that new collaboration structures emerge in Europe – the four EU Macro-Regions co-create their own development Strategies. Armed with the integral perspective, let us explore these complex self-governing, self-transforming, multi-level 'mini-EU' governance experiments that are gaining momentum in Europe – both from the point of view of their value-added to 'the European project' and from the perspective of the capacity they need to develop for manifesting this value. The main intent of our Colloquium – in line with IFIS' general mission and purpose – is to help connect interested integrally oriented researchers and practitioners by offering them a forum to exchange experiences around innovative approaches to complex social challenges. The colloquium is designed to strengthen the dialog and connection between IFIS' members and friends, mostly spread out in different countries and even continents. We also hope to attract new colleagues to join us and be part of IFIS' community of integral research and inquiry.
